Prophets.

For Our Time?

In Scripture we are told, “Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets” (Amos 3:7)*.

It is a wonderful privilege to be able to understand the will of God as revealed in the sure word of prophecy. Based on Scripture, whatever the Lord God plans to do, He first tells His servants the prophets to share with the world.

Throughout the centuries many have claimed to be prophets. Many churches and religions claim to have prophets also. Think of Joseph Smith, the Mormon prophet, and subsequent leaders of that church; Muhammad, the founder of Islam; the Dalai Lama of Tibetan Buddhism; Sun Myung Moon of the Unification Movement (believed by members of that church to be the second coming of Jesus, the Messiah). In the New Webster’s Dictionary and Thesaurus, 1991 edition, the definition of prophet is a person who by divine inspiration declares to the world the divine will, judgments, etc.

Bible Prophets - Noah

God revealed his plans to Noah before the great flood. He told Noah,

People questioned Noah’s sanity ... until the flood actually came.

“And the LORD said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years” (Gen.

6:3). Because God “saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually” (Gen. 6:5), and that “the earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth. And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth” (Gen. 6:11-13).

So we see how God had revealed the plans of what was to take place, and that Noah was to give warning to the world. God’s hope was that if the people would listen, then the terrible results of the great flood could be avoided.

Moses, Jeremiah, Jonah

In Exodus, we learn that God had given a warning through Moses of what was to take place prior to the plagues upon Egypt. Also we find the prophet Jeremiah warning the people of the destruction of Solomon’s temple in Jerusalem.

Before the Romans destroyed Jerusalem in AD 70, He warned the city of the destruction that was to take place. Christ Himself said these words, “And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? Verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down” (Matthew 24:2).

God commanded the prophet Jonah to go to Nineveh to warn the people. “Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me” (Jonah 1:2).

Thought question #1

So we see how God has kept His word. “Surely the Lord God will do nothing but he revealeth His secret unto His servants the prophets.” That being the case, wouldn’t it be reasonable to believe that before the destruction at the end of the world predicted in the Bible, God would still use prophets in our time?

How did it work?

How did God reveal these things to His prophets? “And he [God] said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream” (Numbers 12:6).

The Lord certainly used this way with Daniel and John the Revelator. We find over and over that they were given visions and dreams concerning our time, what would take place and which nations would rise and fall, and what we could expect here in the last days. God sent His prophets when the priests and the people strayed from the right path. The word of prophecy showed the way back to the straight and narrow path.

What were the messages?

The prophet speaking for God brought rebuke, pointed out sin, and called the people to repentance.

“In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight” (Matthew 3:1-3).

Judgment warning!

In the Old Testament, the prophet Ezekiel was told, “Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman: If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul. But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand. So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me” (Ezekiel 33:2-7).

The prophet gives God's warnings.

Over 300 times Ezekiel used the words, “thus saith the Lord,” “He said unto me,” “thou shalt speak My words,” “I the Lord hath spoken it,”

“hear the word of the Lord.” But that was in Old Testament times.

New Testament prophets?

What about in New Testament times? What about the Christian church today? Does God still use prophets?

In first Corinthians 12:28-30, we are told, “And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?”

In verse 28 of the above text, it tells us that God had given many gifts to the church. One of these gifts given to the New Testament church would be prophets.

Also in Ephesians 4:11-14, the apostle Paul, writing under the pen of inspiration, wrote, “And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive.”

God gives His people differing talents.

The word of God states that prophets are given to His New Testament church and His end time church “for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: til we all come in the unity of the faith.”

Prophetic messages still needed

Well, we certainly have not all come into the unity of faith. Therefore the gift of prophecy must be active today. And one of the major reasons that God has given prophets for these end times is “that we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine.”

Conflicting claims to truth

There are hundreds of religions and churches today all claiming to have the truth, all claiming to use the same Bible. And yet there is so much difference in the teachings.

Many churches with differing teachings can be confusing. What is the real truth?

But God is giving us a way so that we can know the truth. The apostle Paul, commending the Bereans in Acts 17:11, said, “These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.”

Prophecy in the last church

We must search the Scriptures to see if what we discuss or what we hear in our churches meets the Bible standard.

The apostle Paul affirms, “So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ” (1 Corinthians 1:7-8).

Paul is sharing that we are not to lack in any gift, here, at the time just before Jesus would return. This would include the gift of prophets and prophesy.

With so much confusion in our world today, and so much confusion in the religious world today, with all the different churches claiming to have the truth, wouldn't it be wise for us to go to Scripture to get a description of the church that we should be looking for today?

The Bible tells us in Revelation 12:17, “And the dragon [which is the devil—we find that in Revelation 12:9] was wroth [or angry] with the woman, [the woman is representing God’s church—Jeremiah 6:2] and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.”

God’s true church would be keeping all ten commandments and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. Not seven, not eight, not nine, but all ten of God’s commandments, and that they would also have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

In Revelation 19:10, we read, “And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

God’s church for these end times, the remnant here at the very end, would be keeping all of God’s commandments and have the spirit of prophecy.

Prophecy in the last days

Most of the time, when someone talks about a church having a prophet, people put their hands up and move back. They become frightened of that, and yet the Bible is very clear that at the end we would have prophets, that God would have prophets in these last days.

The New Testament book of Acts quotes the Old Testament book of Joel (2:28-29) when it states, “And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy” (Acts 2:17-18).

Notice that it clearly states that God would inspire prophetic messages in the last days.

Need to test a prophet

If that be the case, then if someone claims to have a vision or a dream from God, how will we know whether it is true and faithful or not? Jesus Himself said, “And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.” “For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; inso-much that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect” (Matthew 24:11, 24).

God’s 10 Commandments are vital. All 10!

Test #1

If Jesus warned us that there would be false prophets in the last days, then how are we going to be able to distinguish between the false and the true? We’re told in Isaiah 8:20, “To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.” We must compare everything with Scripture. We must study the Scripture to see if what that individual is saying is based and founded upon the word of God. The apostle Paul said, “Prove all things; hold fast that which is good” (1 Thessalonians 5:21).

Test church teachings by the Bible.

Test #2

Another test to know if a prophet is true is found in Jeremiah 28:7-9. “Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people; The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.”

Is gender a test?

Can a prophet be a woman as well as a man? Do we have examples of that in Scripture? Exodus 15:20 states, “Miriam the prophetess.” In Judges 4:4 it says, “Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time.” In 2 Kings 22:14 we read, “Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum.”

Well, we have several examples in the Old Testament, but what about the New Testament?

Luke 2:36 states, “And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel.” In Acts 21:8, 9, we read, “And the next day we that were of Paul’s company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him. And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy.”

We see clearly that the Bible tells of women who were called to prophetic office. Both Old and New Testaments reveal that the women were not excluded from doing the work of a prophet or prophetess.

Is authoring a Bible book a test?

Some people might be asking, how can you be a prophet if you have not written any of the books in Scripture?

One of the greatest prophets that ever walked the face of the planet was John the Baptist, and there is not one book in the Bible that he has written.

Inspiration tells us, “Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer,” (1 Chronicles 29:29). However, there are no Bible books written by Nathan or Gad in the Holy Scriptures as we know them. One of my favorite prophets in the Bible, who is very rarely heard of by most people today, is Micaiah. We find in 2 Chronicles 18:13, “And Micaiah said, As the

Not all prophets wrote Bible books.

LORD liveth, even what my God saith, that will I speak.”

All the false prophets and the teachers of his day were trying to get him to agree with everyone else and give a good report to King Ahab, but he refused. He would rather speak the truth and go to prison or a dungeon than misquote God’s word.

How were prophets treated?

How are most of God’s prophets treated? “And the LORD God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place: But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy.” (2 Chronicles 36:15, 16).

Prosperity promise

On the other side, what is the promise that God has given? “And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper” (2 Chronicles 20:20).

So there is a marvelous promise that if we follow God’s leading through His word, through His prophets, we will prosper. On the other hand, if we don’t follow the will of the Lord through His word and His prophets, we will not prosper since “where there is no vision, the people perish” (Proverbs 29:18).

Thought question #2

In Revelation, chapter 16, we are told about the seven last plagues and the destruction of the earth. If that be the case, wouldn’t it make sense for God to have sent a messenger for our day to prepare us for the Second coming of Jesus? Remember, God has already told us in His word, “Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets” (Amos 3:7).

Ellen G. White’s messages

This writer believes that one such person is a woman by the name of Ellen G. White, who made predictions many years ago, back in the early 1900’s, dealing with cancer. She said that cancer was a germ, a virus. “People are continually eating flesh that is filled with tuberculous and cancerous germs. Tuberculosis, cancer, and other fatal diseases are thus communicated” (The Ministry of Healing, p. 313).

Scores of years later, the Sloan Kettering Institute for Cancer Research stated: “A virus has been linked with eight human cancers in findings he reported today. Dr. Wendell Stanley at the University of California, virologist and Nobel prize winner, stated that a virus is a miniature germ.”

Ellen G. White presented inspired messages.

Tobacco

In 1864 Ellen White wrote, “Tobacco is a poison of the most deceitful and malignant kind, having an exciting, then a paralyzing influence upon the nerves of the body. It is all the more dangerous because its effects upon the system are so slow, and at first scarcely perceivable. Multitudes have fallen victim to its poisonous influence. They have surely murdered themselves by this slow poison (Temperance, p. 58).

That was well over 100 years ago. The world laughed at her. But today it no longer laughs. This unusual prediction made at a time when smoking was considered harmless proves that Ellen White was far ahead of her time. And no wonder God, who knows all secrets, knew that smoking was dangerous and sent word through His humble messenger that mankind should not smoke.

San Francisco Earthquake

In the book Life Sketches she wrote, “... not long hence these cities will suffer under the judgments of God. San Francisco and Oakland are becoming as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the Lord will visit them in wrath.” Quite a statement, yet many believed her message and moved from the two cities specifically mentioned as the targets of God’s wrath (p. 412).

Tobacco is a slow deadly poison!

Her prediction was penned in 1902. On April 18 of 1906, San Francisco was largely destroyed by an earthquake. Fire followed in the wake of the earthquake, and Oakland and other nearby cities suffered greatly.

Ellen White also wrote in a book called The Great Controversy, written in the 1880’s, “In accidents and calamities by sea and by land, in great conflagrations, in fierce tornadoes and terrific hailstorms, in tempests, floods, cyclones, tidal waves, and earthquakes, in every place and in a thousand forms, Satan is exercising his power. He sweeps away the ripening harvest, and famine and distress follow. He imparts to the air a deadly taint, and thousands perish by the pestilence. These visitations are to become more and more frequent and disastrous” (p. 589, 590).

Certainly any thinking, reasonable person could realize that the disasters on our earth are becoming greater and greater and more disastrous. Earthquakes on a daily basis, the floods, the fires that are destroying our cities and towns, are becoming more frequent all the time.

Civil order broken

Referring to the Ten Commandments, Ellen White also wrote the following on p. 585 of the same book, The Great Controversy, “If the law were not binding, why should any fear to transgress? Property would no longer be safe. Men would obtain their neighbor’s possessions by violence, and the strongest would become richest. Life itself would not be respected. The marriage vow would no longer stand as a sacred bulwark to protect the family. He who had the power, would, if he desired, take his neighbor’s wife by violence. The fifth commandment would be set aside with the fourth. Children would not shrink from taking the life of their parents if by so doing they could obtain the desire of their corrupt hearts. The civilized world would become a horde of robbers and assassins; and peace, rest, and happiness would be banished from the earth.”

This is what she described taking place, and the world ignores the commandments in the law of God.

Benjamin Netanyahu, former and current prime minister of Israel observed, “It is far from a happy world in its present condition.”

Political corruption

Also writing in the 1890s, in The Great Controversy on p. 592, “Political corruption is destroying love of justice and regard for truth; and even in free America, rulers and legislators, in order to secure public favor, will yield to the popular demand for a law enforcing Sunday observance. Liberty of conscience, which has cost so great a sacrifice, will no longer be respected.”

“To secure popularity and patronage, legislators will yield to the demand for a Sunday law” (Testimonies for the Church, Vol. 5, p. 451).

“When the legislators frame laws which exalt the first day of the week and put in the place of the seventh, the device of Satan will be perfected” (Review and Herald, April 15, 1890).

Deceptions

Concerning the deceptions of the last days, we are told on page 593 of The Great Controversy, “So closely will the counterfeit resemble the true that it will be impossible to distinguish between them except by the Holy Scriptures. By their testimony every statement and every miracle must be tested. . . . None but those who have fortified the mind with the truths of the Bible will stand through the last great conflict.”

Page 625 says, “Only those who have been diligent students of the Scriptures and who have received the love of the truth will be shielded from the powerful delusion that takes the world captive. By the Bible testimony these will detect the deceiver in his disguise. To all the testing time will come. By the sifting of temptation the genuine Christian will be revealed. Are the people of God now so firmly established upon His word that they would not yield to the evidence of their senses? Would they, in such a crisis, cling to the Bible and the Bible only?”

Destruction in NYC

Having been given a dream in the early 1900's, Ellen White wrote, “On one occasion, when in New York City, I was in the night season called upon to behold buildings rising story after story toward heaven. These buildings were warranted to be fireproof, and they were erected to glorify their owners and builders. Higher and still higher these buildings rose, and in them the most costly material was used. Those to whom these buildings belonged were not asking themselves: ‘How can we best glorify God?’ The Lord was not in their thoughts. . . .

“The scene that next passed before me was an alarm of fire. Men looked at the lofty and supposedly fire-proof buildings and said: ‘They are perfectly safe.’ But these buildings were consumed as if made of pitch. The fire engines could do nothing to stay the destruction. The firemen were unable to operate the engines.

“I am instructed that when the Lord’s time comes, should no change have taken place in the hearts of proud, ambitious human beings, men will find that the hand that had been strong to save will be strong to destroy. No earthly power can stay the hand of God. No material can be used in the erection of buildings that will preserve them from destruction when God’s appointed time comes to send retribution on men for their disregard of His law and for their selfish ambition” (Testimonies, Vol. 9, p. 12, 13).

These scenes certainly took place on 9/11 when buildings that could not be destroyed were destroyed, where the fire engines were able to do nothing because they were crushed under the rubble of the buildings.

City life problems

What are we told it would be like in our cities at the end of time?

“There are not many, even among educators and statesmen, who comprehend the causes that underlie the present state of society. Those who hold the reins of government are not able to solve the problems of moral corruption, poverty, pauperism, and increasing crime. They are struggling in vain to place business operations on a more secure basis. If men would give more heed to the teaching of God’s word, they would find a solution to the problems that perplex them” (Testimonies Vol. 9, p. 13).

Poverty, moral corruption and crime are concentrated in cities.

“We are living in the time of the end. The fast-fulfilling signs of the times declare that the coming of Christ is near at hand. The days in which we live are solemn and important. The Spirit of God is gradually but surely being withdrawn from the earth. Plagues and judgments are already falling upon the despisers of the grace of God. The calamities by land and sea, the unsettled state of society, the alarms of war, are portentous. They forecast approaching events of the greatest magnitude.

“The agencies of evil are combining their forces and consolidating. They are strengthening for the last great crisis. Great changes are soon to take place in our world, and the final movements will be rapid ones” (Testimonies, Vol. 9, p. 11).

Pay attention to the prophet!

Jesus Himself warned us to be careful that we did not disregard His promise. “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate” (Matthew 23:37-38).

Ellen White described Christ’s sacrifice to provide an opportunity for those willing to repent. “Christ was treated as we deserve, that we might be treated as He deserves. He was condemned for our sins, in which He had no share, that we might be justified by His righteousness, in which we had no share. He suffered the death which was ours, that we might receive the life which was His. ‘With His stripes we are healed’” (The Desire of Ages, p. 25).

Let us be careful that we do not disregard the prophets as they did of old, but let us search the Scriptures to see if these things are so. Prove all things, hold to that which is good.

Let us not be part of the group that the apostle Peter wrote about in 2 Peter 3:3, 4: “Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.”

The Word or the world?

Let us not be like King Ahaziah, written about in 2 Kings 1, who needed information about his illness and went to Baalzebub, the god of Ekron, to inquire whether he would recover or not, when there was a prophet by the name of Elijah, who was the prophet of God. The king ignored the prophet Elijah and sought after the things, and intelligences, of this world, to see and get an answer.

We will not find the right answers looking to the world. We must get our answers from a “thus saith the Lord” and through the messengers whom He chooses. The Holy Bible says that God set some in the church as prophets.

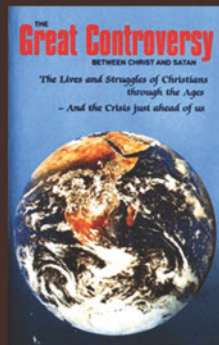

Let us not ignore His Word, but let us search diligently so that we can be prepared for His soon return.

is coming

Anyone who accepts the divine authority of the Holy Scriptures must also accept the fact of the ministry of the Holy Spirit through spiritual gifts.

The teachings of Scripture are clear concerning these gifts and we need to realize they are an integral part of Scripture.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John: Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.
